CHANGING LIVES
THE $10 MILLION CAMPAIGN FOR CHI PHI

Brothers

In March, our boards met jointly in Hilton Head Island, South Carolina to continue advancing our Fraternity. During the weekend, those in attendance enjoyed the fellowship of our Brotherhood. Our boards developed strategic goals to ensure Chi Phi is offering the best fraternal experience in America. As you will see throughout this edition of the Chakett, our plans for Chi Phi are bold and our vision will build better men for many generations to come.

One bold idea Chi Phi Brothers adopted is the accreditation program. This fall marked the fifth semester of implementation and more Chapters are operating at or above the minimum requirement than ever before. After the fall submissions were calculated, thirty-four active Chapters received accredited status. Becoming an accredited Chapter is not an easy process. Each Chapter must answer a lengthy questionnaire and provide significant documentation to support their reports. This report measures the strengths and challenges each Chapter faces and helps National staff and Alumni volunteers develop a plan to best support the Chapter. You can read more about how the accreditation program has helped our Chapters improve on page 6.

While you can read all about Chapter improvements and the great work our Active Brothers are doing in this edition of the Chakett, that doesn't compare to seeing it in person. We would like to invite you to join us at the fourth annual Watts Gunn Golf Tournament and the 149th Chi Phi Congress in Austin, TX to experience all that Chi Phi has to offer. The Watts Gunn Tournament proceeds are used to fund leadership training programs, like the College of Excellence, to ensure our young Brothers have the skills to be successful long after graduation.

Throughout Congress you will have an opportunity to meet Brothers from around the country and discuss how programs like Chapter accreditation have impacted them and their Chi Phi experience. We hope you join this historic event. Visit chiphi.com/congress for more information.

CHI PHI ACCREDITATION

Beginning in the fall of 2011, Chi Phi Congress implemented the accreditation program for all Chapters and Colonies. In the third year of full implementation of Chi Phi's accreditation program, much is being learned about our Fraternity, and how we can improve. Chi Phi, for the first time, has a mechanism to collect and set national benchmarks, such as how many service hours or dollars contributed to philanthropic organizations. This is valuable information to have as Chi Phi makes plans to return to dormant Chapter campuses, expand to new campuses, improve the undergraduate member experience, and continue to prove our relevancy and value to our many partners. The accreditation program is a program developed and implemented by the undergraduate Membership of Chi Phi. As such, it will continue to evolve as the needs of the Fraternity change. The following two pages show aggregate statistics from the Fall 2013 submission against the past five submission cycles. Individual Chapter and Colony scores can be found in the Around Chi Phi section on page 20.

34

In fall of 2011 only 13 Chapters and Colonies were accredited. Today 34 Chapters and Colonies are accredited.

KEY FACTS OF ACCREDITATION

- Fall 2011 Implemented; Fall 2013 accreditation is the 5th semester of collection
- Designed to meet three goals: 1) Ensure a minimum level of Chapter operations within all Chi Phi Chapters and Colonies. 2) Ensure the future health and success of Chi Phi Chapters and Colonies by identifying local and national operational areas for improvement and making resources in those areas available. 3) Provide a mechanism of reward and recognition to Chapters and Colonies who are exceeding minimum operating expectations and truly excelling.
- Ten Pillars: Continuity - Recruitment and Retention; Proactive Risk Management; Asset Stewardship - Financial and Property Management; Academic Health; Total Membership Development; Heritage and Traditions; Chapter/Colony Operations; Organizational Networking and Community Engagement; Leadership Advancement; Alumni Relations

THE $10 MILLION CAMPAIGN FOR CHI PHI

Crews finished construction on the Greek Life Museum in March 2014.

A BOLD VISION:

build better men
promote chapter excellence create academic success
preserve our heritage

DONORS COMMIT $8.7 MILLION TO CHANGING LIVES CAMPAIGN

Donors to the Changing Lives Campaign have made the long dreamt about Chi Phi Greek Life Museum a reality. Opening in March 2015, the Museum will house 189 years of Chi Phi, Greek Life and higher education history in the William M. Byrd National Headquarters Building.

Four years ago, Chi Phi volunteers, Alumni and Brothers set a bold vision: To raise $10 million to create academic success, build better men, promote chapter excellence and preserve our heritage through our first ever capital campaign. This bold vision was inspired by our desire to be the premier national fraternity and provide Chi Phi Brothers with the premier fraternity experience at every level. It was inspired by our deeply held belief that no other membership organization can compete with the fraternity experience.
In four years, over 2,000 Brothers, parents and friends have joined us in this commitment and vision. These Brothers, parents and friends have invested $8.7 million in making Chi Phi the premier fraternity.

These generous donors have helped fund the Alphas Academy, a program that we dreamed about hosting for ten years. They have helped develop individual training and support programs for every Chi Phi Chapter and Colony. These generous donors have built the Chi Phi Greek Life Museum and awarded over $262,000 in Chapter specific grants and scholarships.

The Changing Lives Campaign has allowed Chi Phi to award $1,447,852 in housing grants for educational space in Chi Phi Chapter Houses and has provided $200,000 in scholarships for Brothers to pursue their higher education dreams.

Alumni have donated their time, talent and treasure to make these last four years great and, perhaps more importantly, to make sure Chi Phi is the premier fraternity for generations to come.

We aren't finished yet! We need your help to reach our $10 million goal. We need more Alumni to commit to this bold vision and invest in the future of Chi Phi and our Brothers. The Changing Lives Campaign will end in 2014 and we need you to add your name to this historic effort before it's too late. To make your commitment today, visit www.chiphicampaign.com/donate. You can make a difference in the lives of thousands of young men and help achieve this bold vision.

COLLEGE OF Excellence

Chi Phi Fraternity established 1824

July 16-20, 2014
Atlanta, GA

chiphi.org/coe

INAUGURAL BOARD of ADVISORS
meeting is a success

Since 1975, Chi Phi's membership has more than doubled. Just 38 years ago, the Fraternity served 28,871 Members. Today, there are more than 47,000 Chi Phi Brothers. Chi Phi has seen its volunteer efforts, administrative tasks and educational responsibilities grow exponentially. The model for Greek life is also changing. Leading students look for a fraternity that enhances their collegiate experience outside of the classroom…one that serves as a launch pad to a successful career.

To better serve Chi Phi Brothers, the Educational Trust established the Board of Advisors in March 2013. The Board of Advisors supports the Educational Trust's Board of Trustees and provides critical advice on a number of current issues facing the Trust. This is of particular demand today because of the resulting demands of a rapidly growing membership organization and the changing Greek world.

The Board of Advisors had their inaugural meeting in January 2014 in conjunction with the Alphas Academy. The advisors reviewed the Trust's Strategic Plan, making key updates and offered advice on the Changing Lives Campaign. Advisors also discussed Chapter housing and how Chi Phi may be able to better support housing for Chapters.

Four advisors participated in the Taking Leadership from the Chapter Room to the Board Room panel during the Alphas Academy and all joined the Alphas for the Chairman's Dinner. "This was a great weekend. I enjoyed meeting other Alumni, but spending time with the Chapter Alphas was fantastic," shared Advisor Dick Gilbert, Rho 1962.

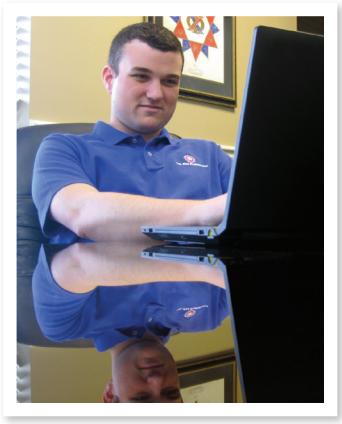
A day in the life of a CHI PHI FIELD EXECUTIVE



If you held an officer position, you have met him. He shows up to visit your Chapter for a few days a year. Your only interaction with him might be during your officer meeting and possibly during a Chapter meeting. The Field Executive job is much more involved than you might expect. The Field Executives support Chapters and Colonies within Chi Phi. Most of their time is spent meeting with Chapters and Colonies across the country. In addition, the men prepare for a Chapter and Colony visit as well as provide educational support to Chapters and Colonies from the William M. Byrd Chi Phi National Headquarters in Suwanee, Georgia.

ROAD WARRIORS

Early in the year, the National Fraternity Staff reviews applications for Field Executives. The applications are carefully reviewed and the best candidates are invited to Chi Phi headquarters for an in person interview. "When hiring for the Field Executive position, we look for men who can manage many different tasks and are personable. These men will spend most of their time working independently. We want to make sure they understand how to balance the responsibilities of the job," said Deanne Walters Cross, Director of Member Services.

Before a Field Executive arrives at a Chapter he must understand their areas of opportunity, arrange meetings with Chapter Officers and Campus Advisors and book his travel. Field Executives typically begin planning a visit five weeks before they set foot on campus. With multiple Chapter visits occurring in one trip, a Field Executive is frequently coordinating schedules with four different Chapters at a time. Once on campus, he maximizes his 72 hours with the Chapter Brothers. "I try to understand where the Chapter is struggling. I do this by looking at past visit reports, accreditation reports, and conversations with Alumni," shared Patrick Lee, Psi 2013, a current Field Executive. During their visit, a Field Executive will meet with University Administrators, Chapter Officers, and Alumni. The primary objective of a Field Executive visit is to assess the state of the Chapter and coach them to success. Field Executives also provide in person training on any topic the Chapter may need. Patrick commented, "I want to make sure the men of the Chapter are setup for success."

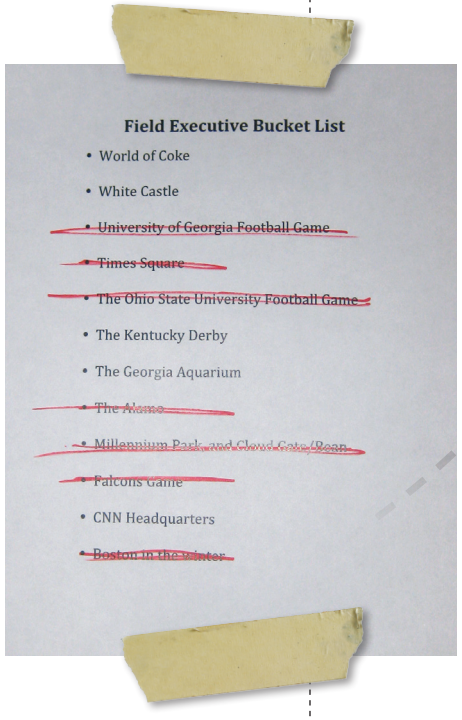
After a Chapter visit, the Field Executive generates a report based on his conversations with University Administrators, Chapter Officers, and Alumni. This report identifies opportunities for growth and areas of strength. The Chapter is provided a copy of the report along with any interested Alumni. A copy is saved in the Chapter's file with the National Fraternity for historical reference.

The role of Field Executive is not all work. The men who make the most of their position supporting the Fraternity find ways to explore the areas they visit. Sean Gordon, Epsilon Delta 2013, a current Field Executive took time before his travel began; he developed a 'Field Executive Bucket List.'

During the month of February, Sean has crisscrossed the country while supporting Chapters and the Fraternity. He began the month in Boston meeting with the Beta Chapter. Over the weekend he explored the historical sites that played a role in founding this country. The following week he continued south to Dartmouth. After he finished meeting with the men of Lambda Theta, he concluded the week by traveling to the Rho Iota Kappa Chapter in Rhode Island. Then he jetted off to Texas for the weekend and a Regional Leadership Alliance. The following weekend he flew to the windy city for the Chicago Regional Leadership Alliance. He ended the month up in Pennsylvania meeting with Psi Chapter officers.

"It is a surreal experience," said former Field Executive Michael Erickson, Upsilon 2010. He went on to say "one day you are meeting with a Chapter in New York, the next you are in Texas providing recruitment support. It is often easy to forget how lucky you are in this job."

The Grand Council recognizes the importance of these road warriors and has pledged their support in developing these men further. Under the direction of Grand Alpha Soderquist, the Chi Phi Educational Trust has developed a scholarship for Field Executives continuing their educational efforts. Any Field Executive who completes at least a two-year commitment is eligible to apply for the scholarship. Former Field Executives have gone on to do great things. Several have gone to law school, started their own companies, earned their Ph.D., or worked on Capitol Hill.



alphas academy builds better men

In January, thirty-nine Chapter Presidents from across the country traveled to Atlanta for Chi Phi's annual Alphas Academy, a program designed specifically to prepare newly elected Chapter Alphas for their term in office. The program curriculum is based around Kouzes and Posner's leadership theory called "The Leadership Challenge" which outlines five key behavior categories leaders use to lead an organization. The Chapter Alphas assessed their strengths and learned how to improve their weaknesses in order to better lead their Chapter. The weekend culminated in each Alpha developing a leadership plan for his term in office.

"I am a better man, Alpha, and Chi Phi Brother because I attended Alphas Academy."

— Eric D. Alexander, Arizona State University 2016

Saturday activities of Alphas Academy were again the highlight of the experience for participants. The afternoon started with Chi Phi Alumni sharing their wisdom and helping Alphas understand that the challenges they will encounter throughout their terms are lessons that will also help them be successful in their careers after college. Four distinguished Alumni provided insight about their career success and how membership in Chi Phi has played a role in their success. Saturday evening, Trust Chairman Christopher J. Shuler, Alpha Zeta 1984, treated Chapter Alphas to a formal dinner at the Capital City Club. The evening concluded with Brigadier General Dale Alford, Alpha Zeta 1986 sharing lessons learned about leadership through his time in the US Marine Corps. He laid out specific actions Chapter Alphas need to take in order to be successful leaders within their Chapters and throughout their lives.

During the fall of 2013, the Chi Phi Fraternity planted its flag at Arizona State University. Men form all over the university decided to join the fraternity focused on building better men. Eric Alxander, ASU Colony 2016, rose above the thirty-one other men to become the ASU Colony's first Alpha. The executive board, lead by Eric, was learning as they went along building budgets, writing bylaws, and trying their hand at recruiting. Fortunately, Eric attended the 2014 Alphas Academy. As Eric Alxander, ASU Colony 2016 put it "I would not have been as good of an Alpha without attending Alphas Academy. I learned what it meant to be a true Fraternity Man."

Eric along with the other attendees of the 2014 Alphas Academy attended a session led by Cori Gilbert Wallace, a member of Delta Gamma Sorority's national council. Cori's session paired the Alphas together for facilitated dialogue on modern day Fraternities, the notion of a Fraternity Man, and Chi Phi's values. She shared stories of her time as an undergraduate sorority member and as an Alumna. After each story, Cori asked the men to answer a question with their Brother. "When I got back to campus, I gathered the men and talked with them about becoming better Fraternity Men. Cori challenged my view of a Fraternity Man. In turn, I am challenging the men in my Colony to become better men. We talk about this on a weekly basis," shared Eric.

Student facilitators were again an invaluable component to the success of the program. These graduates of the Alphas Academy return to provide a from-the-trenches-view which current Alphas respect. Adam Pannier, Pi Theta 2014 reflected on his experience as a student facilitator, "I wasn't exactly sure what to expect before the weekend. Looking back, I have learned more about myself and grown as a leader. I am proud at the opportunity to help other Chapters in Chi Phi."

"I was amazed with the deep connections these Alphas made during the weekend. In 48 hours these men go from strangers to true Brothers. They reach out to each other during the year for support and advice." Commented Executive Director, Michael Azarian Psi Delta 1997. Michael went on to say "everything about the weekend is intentional. Our staff critically thinks about how to challenge each Alpha. We want these men to succeed now and in the future as Alumni."

This past year has been a huge transition period for Omega Zeta, starting with its 100% retention of its spring pledge class going into the fall semester. Additionally, the biggest turnaround for this Chapter has been the 14 newly Initiated Brothers this fall semester, more than doubling our Chapter size, bringing us to 25 active members. Now that we have 14 quality New Members, we are now making a positive impression on this campus through continuous involvement.

Recently the men of Alpha Delta raised $14,218 for THON. The philanthropy is a yearlong effort to raise funds and awareness for the fight against pediatric cancer. Only days before the first dance step was taken at THON 2014 Jay Paterno, son of legendary coach Joe Paterno, paid a visit to the Brothers. Focusing on the concepts of responsibility and pride the Brothers should feel after the successful restarting the Chi Phi Penn State chapter, Paterno shared his ideas of what it means to be part of a brotherhood like Chi Phi and emphasized that the bonds formed in this Fraternity will last a lifetime.

When Ken Fredericks visited Alphas Academy in January of 2013, he began a reengagement with Chi Phi after decades of focus on family and career. He traveled to Atlanta to see first-hand what Chi Phi's new leadership program was all about. That weekend Ken met Chi Phi's fresh young leaders and served on the Alumni panel. He had a chance to share some wisdom about leadership, business and integrity. Most importantly, Ken reengaged with the Brotherhood that laid the foundation for his success decades prior in Gainesville, Florida.

Donor creates SCHOLARSHIP to benefit leaders

Ken was the Alpha of the Theta Delta Chapter in 1979. He was a passionate leader who developed lifelong friendships with his Brothers and learned valuable skills leading his Chapter on 1 Fraternity Row. After receiving his bachelor's degree in 1981, Ken drove north to the University of South Carolina to work on a masters in Business. Money was tight for Ken and his wife Eva when they settled in Columbia, South Carolina. He knew how important higher education was, but needed help financially to complete his Master's of Science in International Business. Ken turned to the Chi Phi Educational Trust for a loan in 1982. The trust was able to loan Ken $1,500 so he could pay his tuition and living expenses. "That $1,500 felt like $15,000 at the time," Ken said. At this crucial point in his life, the Brotherhood was happy to help Ken and Eva. "I promised myself at that moment that if I ever had the chance to return the favor, I surely would."

After receiving his masters degree, Ken kicked off a 25 year career in international business retiring as the head of Human Resources for a major defense firm. He and Eva had two children, and settled down in Ponte Vedra, Florida, just outside of Jacksonville. With the kids off to college and a successful career in the rearview mirror, Ken now has the time to reengage with Chi Phi. Reengagement was threefold with Ken. He didn't want to just reconnect with some of his pledge Brothers or send in a check. He wanted to reengage socially, professionally and financially. He started with his pledge Brother Charlie Allen, Theta Delta 1982, the long-time Chapter Advisor of Theta Delta. He met the leaders of Chi Phi at Alphas Academy in Atlanta. He visited the Chapter house in Gainesville on a Gator football game day and enjoyed the house band. At that point, he knew the time was right to fulfill the promise he made to himself decades ago and return the favor to Chi Phi.

To reengage financially, Ken wanted to do something that would make an impact on the Theta Delta Brothers forever. He decided to endow two scholarships that would promote the long term success of the very Chapter that laid that foundation for his personal success. With the help of Brothers Dave Davis, Theta Delta 1973 and Charlie Allen, Ken created a scholarship for the Brother who had the greatest impact on recruitment each semester, as well as an annual scholarship for the Chapter Alpha, given he had a successful year leading the Chapter. "If you'll step up and advance this fraternity in a way that makes us all proud, you should be rewarded," Ken said. "The two most important pieces of my career were recruiting the right people and leading those people in the right direction, I wanted these scholarships to reflect that."

Ken structured his gift to Chi Phi in a unique fashion. He wanted to leave Chi Phi in his estate plan, but also wanted these scholarships to begin as soon as possible. To make that happen, Ken became a member of the Gladfelter Circle with distinction this year with a five year pledge. This pledge will allow the funding of the scholarships right away, rather than waiting for the estate portion of his gift to come to fruition. "I'm excited to meet these guys and shake hands with the best recruiters and best leaders," he said. The Theta Delta Members are even more excited. When the scholarships were announced at Chapter, the men responded with a rousing round of clicks and cheers. "We are so thankful for Brother Fredericks generosity and vision," said Josh Goldsmith, Chapter Alpha. "These scholarships will be a huge help to our hardest working Brothers and it's sure to make Theta Delta even more successful."

Remembering Chi Phi After Your Death: It Just Takes Two Lines

Making a gift to Chi Phi through a Last Will and Testament is easy. Individuals should instruct their attorney to add a provision to their Will naming the Chi Phi Educational Trust as a beneficiary of their estate.

The following language is appropriate:

I give, devise and bequeath [insert dollar amount or percent of estate] to the Chi Phi Educational Trust, (tax id # 58-6035103) an unincorporated trust organized and existing under the laws of the State of Georgia, or its successor organization. Said Trust is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and contributions to it are deductible under the provisions of federal income, gift and estate tax laws.

Individuals who have made the Chi Phi Educational Trust or their Chapter a beneficiary of their Last Will and Testament are asked to provide an attorney's letter or copy of this page from their Will so Chi Phi can acknowledge the donor's generosity and properly plan its future.

To learn more or to have a confidential conversation about a planned gift, contact Elizabeth Vaughn at 404.231.1824 or vaughn@chiphi.org.

Paul Wakefield Purdom

Paul passed away surrounded by family and friends in Sonoma on December 14, 2013. He was 85. With his passing, Northern California is short one interesting character.

Paul was born in Williams, Arizona on November 9, 1928 to Paul Wakefield Wallace and Mary Louise Doran. Shortly thereafter, Paul was adopted by William Walton Purdom after the death of his biological father.

He was raised on the San Francisco Peninsula and graduated from Burlingame High School in 1946.

Paul graduated from UC Berkeley in 1950, where he was a member of the Chi Phi Fraternity. Cal was a source of lifelong joy, pride and frustration. He could never understand why the Bears were unable to repeat the three consecutive Rose Bowl appearances he enjoyed as an undergraduate. Despite this Paul was a generous supporter of academic and athletic programs at Cal, as well as many other charitable organizations.

Following college, Paul traveled extensively in Europe.

Back in San Francisco, he met Elizabeth (Betsy) Jane Chapman. Shortly after announcing their engagement, the U.S. Army called and Paul and Betsy spent their first few years of married life in Munich, Germany courtesy of Uncle Sam.

After returning from Germany, Paul began his career in advertising and public relations. He formed Rubin and Purdom Company in the early 1960s, which evolved into Paul Purdom & Company and finally, Purdom Public Relations.

The Purdom agency was one of the first to practice high technology public relations for the rapidly evolving Silicon Valley. The Purdom family sold the agency to the French conglomerate Publicis Groupe in 1999.

Paul and Betsy lived for decades in San Anselmo where they raised their sons, Ned and Charlie. Paul then lived for some 25 years in Sonoma.

Paul loved to garden, hike, and take long, lonely drives through the Nevada desert. He read extensively and loved art and film. He walked out of more movies than most ever see. In Sonoma, he enjoyed lunching with new and old friends.

Paul is survived by his sons Ned (Ellin) and Charlie and grandchildren Ted, Charlie, Lucy and Andy. He was predeceased by his former wife Betsy and his younger sister Wendy.

William J. Harper

William (Bill), beloved husband of Linda Harper; dear father of William J. Harper, III of Greensboro, NC, James S. Harper (Kei) of Denver, CO, Robert C. Harper of Ottawa, ON Canada and Melinda E. Harper of Crested Butte, CO; dear stepfather of Gennifer Johnson (Scott) of Woodstock, IL and the late Michael Szego (Julie); dear grandfather of Eric, Myriam, Alexander, Emile, Nicholas, Sarah, Matthew and Emily; Mick, Courtney, Julia, Wyatt, Hunter, Solomon and Ryan; dear brother of Eleanor "Hap" Kidder (Fred) of Cleveland, OH and the late Mary Miller and Barbara Handke; dear brother-in-law of Sherrie Weitzenhof (Dave) of Bath, OH ~ sadly passed away November 4, 2013.

Bill was a "playful" adventurer a "free spirit" who lived a very full and blessed life with all he experienced and grew from.

Bill, beloved son of William James and Beulah Patchke Harper and their youngest of four children, was born in Hamburg, NY on October 20, 1927 prior to moving to Shaker Heights, OH after a short stay in Youngstown, OH. Upon graduating from Shaker Heights High School, Bill enlisted in the Army Infantry for 1.5 years in the Korean Theater (1946 – 1947) following his father who served in the Army during World War I. After serving his country, Bill went on to Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (1947 – 1951), where his father had graduated as an electrical engineer, to earn his Bachelors in Mechanical Engineering degree while having fun with his "brothers" living at the Chi Phi Fraternity, Theta Chapter, where he remained an active alumnus until 2006.

Upon graduation, Bill returned to Cleveland, married Margaret Ellen Werntz Harper (Peggy) in 1951, had four children together, partook in church and community activities, joined Fork-n-Fiddle, bowled, liked staying fit at various athletic clubs throughout his lifetime and started his career at Bethlehem Steel before moving on to a short stay at Ford Motor Company – Cleveland Stamping Plant. From there, he then settled into his lifelong career of being a Sales Engineer; first with industrial equipment and then in the heating, ventilating and air conditioning (HVAC) industry.

After Bill's first marriage ended in the early 70s, he got involved with numerous singles activities, joined Suburban Ski Club, skied for 15+ years (Ohio, the Rockies, New York and Eastern Canada), played racquetball, continued bowling in various leagues and loved power boating on Lake Erie always having fun with family and friends. Bill also took an interest in cars and trains and enjoyed fishing, tennis, golf, jogging and relaxing in one of his favorite places, the sauna.

Ultimately, he met his dear wife, Linda Szego, where Bill had a wonderfully loving 30 years with her having just celebrated their 30th anniversary in September 2013. Together, they enriched each other's lives with a deep love, understanding and compassion from all they shared as husband and wife ~ "best friends." Bill and Linda enjoyed the arts (symphony and theatre) and traveled around the world these past 15+ years seeing and experiencing countless historic, romantic and exotic destinations and sites. They truly had fun together.

Bill was a "playful" adventurer a "free spirit" who lived a very full and blessed life with all he experienced and grew from. He dearly loved and genuinely cared about his family always making that his priority to be the best husband, father and grandfather he could be through thick and thin providing his support, guidance and wisdom when needed. As the water currents of life ebbed and flowed, Bill always did his ever best to be pleasant, gracious and nice accepting whatever came his way. Bill truly was loved by all and will be dearly missed.

Psi Chapter Brothers Reconnect

Twenty-two Brothers from the classes of the 70's got together at Lehigh for a weekend of socializing, catching up and telling tales of when they were in the house. As one Brother put it, the stories seem to get more embellished each time we meet. Some of the Brothers had not returned to Lehigh since their graduation. The event was highlighted with a tailgate on the Goodman Athletic Complex, hosted by Bob Kendi, Psi 1975. There was a solemn moment when Brothers Scott Strickland, Psi 1977 and F. Larry Jacobs, Psi 1977 took time to remind us of two men, Brother Scott Stebbins, Psi 1977 and Frank Flemming who joined Chapter Eternal since our last gathering. During the weekend, many of the Brothers took time to tour the Chapter house, which had received a new slate roof and copper gutters over the summer. The event was planned and coordinated by Brother Joe Iannoni, Psi 1974.
